

100%Chef

Dear 100%Chef Dealer Applicant,

Welcome and thank you for choosing 100%Chef and 100%Barman products. In order to establish a long and successful relationship with each of our distributors, it is essential to regulate from Cocina sin Límites, S.L. our commercial agreement in a way that guarantees a perfect and orderly distribution, in order to pass on quality and service to the final customer.

100%Chef is committed to the success of each of our authorized dealers. Through you, we provide your customers with quality products that will give years of dependable service and lasting value. This relationship obliges both parties to respect the established commercial agreements, as well as to act with the principles of transparency and good practices for mutual benefit.

This selection of potential distributors allows discriminating those who are limited to a specific/punctual interest, to the detriment of all others. For this reason, the procedure to aim for being an official distributor for a specific territory requires filling in all the information required in the dossier "official distributor request" and sending it to orders@100x100chef.com.

Upon approval a representative will contact you with wholesale prices and further information to set up an account with us. Normal time for application approval is one week; this may be expedited according to the promptness in which we receive your application with all appropriate information submitted.

Thank you again for your interest and we look forward to working with you, receive my warmest regards

Angel Salvador Esplugas
President of Cocina Sin Límites, S.L.
